"Bulldog tools have been around for as long as I can remember and in my 50 years of looking after grounds I've never found anything to beat them. They're reliable, and above all tough – they don't call them the "strongest tool on earth" for nothing and in my line of business that's what counts!"

unlucky injuries. With myself never having been fully fit this season, Graham Barrow and Eamon O'Keefe being both sidelined for some considerable time, we have been deprived of the services of three of our key players, a situation which would hit even the top clubs hard (Can you imagine Liverpool winning the Championship without Hansen, Souness and Rush? Mind you, knowing them, they probably would).

But injuries apart, we don't seem to have been getting it together in the last few weeks and there is still a lot of hard work to do before we reach our top form again. I believe, however, that, as a team we come out of this spell as better people — me as a better manager and the lads as better players, because it's only when things go badly wrong that we are forced to look at our attitudes, ideas and performance in a critical way, and to discover what is right about them and, more important, what is wrong.

Today we have a chance to prove ourselves again and I must repeat my thanks to you, the supporters for not getting on our backs. It is so important that when we run out onto Springfield Park we know that you have the patience and wisdom not to panic and cry wolf, because it would be impossible to improve under that kind of pressure. And don't forget to give the young lads an extra cheer.

Best wishes,

Larry Lloyd.

HELLO and welcome back to Springfield Park for today's game against our opponents from London, Millwall. It seems a long time since we last played here, with our trip down south seeing us continue our losing run at Exeter and then checking it at Orient last Saturday. Hopefully that game was the turning point. There has been no panic at the club because of our bad run, however, and I am delighted to say that all of the fans I have spoken to have shown great sympathy and patience, and for this I would like to thank you all. Football is about both winning and losing and to enjoy the highs you have to know the lows — I just hope that we've had all the lows for the season!

We are, of course, suffering from some LATICS fans who moan about the admission prices at Springfield Park should have been at Orient last weekend. The cheapest seat in the stand at Brisbane Road was £4, rising to a staggering £6, while admission to the terraces alone would have set you back £2.50.

In addition, programmes were on sale at a "modest" 50p., and when you consider it costs just a little over £3 to watch Liverpool at Anfield, it's a bit of a puzzle how Orient have the cheek to charge such prices.

There's no sign of an end to Portsmouth's recruiting of new players. After signing Everton striker Alan Biley at the start of the season for a fee in excess of £100,000, manager Bobby Campbell went back to Goodison Park recently and came away with another of Howard Kendall's "surplus" to requirements Campbell has now signed Trevor Ross on a month's loan.

Today's opponents Millwall are on the lookout for a new manager following last week's parting of the ways with player boss Peter Anderson.

Bristol Rovers manager Bobby Gould waited two games before parading new signing Mike Channon.

Channon, already rejected by Newcastle so far this season, signed for Rovers the day after they beat Latics 4-0 last month, and then sat on the sub-bench until Gould could find a place for him in his winning side.

Channon made an appearance at Southend last Friday night, his second, and Rovers lost 1-0!

Still on the subject of losing, Newport, after disposing of Latics two weeks ago must have fancied their chances at Reading but the Elm Park revival continued as they thrashed the Welsh club 4-2.

I WAS extremely disappointed to read in the press about the rejection of our planning application for the use of the all-weather pitch here at Springfield Park, and that I was also annoyed that somehow the press failed to get over our side of the story. All the local papers wrote of our desire to "extend the use" of the pitch and that Councillors were defending the local residents in refusing it. As this facility was constructed under the Football and the Community Scheme, this rejection has caused our good efforts to rebound on us and make us out to be villains. I therefore think it important to put the matter straight. This then, is the story nobody got around to printing and which the honorable councillors seem to have misinterpreted.

Since 1947 we have had a training pitch behind the Springfield Park end of the ground which has been used regularly. Since turning into a full-time outfit, the pitch has been most in use for reserve and youth team training every Tuesday and Thursday evening. When Freddie Pye and Bobby Charlton came to the club, they got together with their co-Directors and approached the Sports Council and the Local Council with a novel scheme. Together with those two bodies, Latics would fund the construction on that training area of an all-weather pitch, modernise the existing floodlights and let the public of Wigan use the facility every afternoon and on the three week-nights when we did not require it, i.e. Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

A meeting was organised and all three parties agreed to go ahead with this excellent idea. The Sports Council and the Latics agreed to provide the bulk of the money and the local council told my predecessor how to go about getting planning permission. He applied for the extra three nights use assuring that we would not need to apply for the two nights we required it as custom and practise gave a right to use it.

Nobody at the Council told him any different, planning permission was granted for any three nights, the pitch was constructed and everybody was happy. Imagine, then, our surprise when, a few months after it had opened, we started to get nasty letters from the Council telling us we were using it more than the three nights permitted under planning permission.

Some mistake, surely, we proclaimed. We don't need planning for Tuesdays and Thursdays. "Oh yes you do", said the Council. Well you apply, we said, because the three nights aren't specified and you could apply to cover two of your three nights. We can't apply, they said, but if you apply your sure to get a sympathetic hearing. And so, for the sake of satisfying the bureaucracy, we reluctantly applied. And what happened? The planning committee said "no chance" — you agreed to three nights in the first place.

The outcome of all this is that we now have a beautiful pitch which we paid £37,000 towards so that both the public and ourselves could use it, and now the public are not going to be able to use it. Instead, it will lie empty on two nights a week and kids will climb over the wall (which we can't put barbed wire all the way round because we can't get planning permission) and make a racket on it. A project which came from a desire by this club to show that it cares about sport in the community has been wrecked. If anybody can see any sense in it, please tell me.

Yours in frustration,
Colin Burke.

THE LOCAL VIEW

BY GEOFF KEMP

THERE is one thing that has been intriguing me all season about local amateur soccer, and that is the number of times I seem to find myself describing a game as "a match of two halves".

I refuse to believe that the local pitches are all on 45 degree slopes, a force ten wind blows straight up the field of play or any of the other things which could favour first one team and then the other. Perhaps it is something to do with a subconscious "letting up" by the dominant team, although I'm sure their manager would soon have something to say about that!

Whatever the reason, a prime example occurred recently when Bispham finished the first half a goal in front against a highly-rated Aspull — and then let in six in the second half. But it was a nonetheless courageous performance by Bispham against a very good team and they even put up a late rally to score another couple themselves. Final score, 6-3.

Another example was in the First Division of the Wigan Amateur League (the Bispham-Aspull match was in the Premier Division of the same League). A. Hastings hit a quick-fire hat-trick in just half an hour for Standish Lower Ground only for Rose Hill to reply with three goals in the second half and take a point.

In Division One at the weekend Aspull Reserves were 3-1 in front when the second half got under way, but soon found themselves 4-3 down in their game against Whitley Wanderers. But with just six minutes left Aspull were awarded a penalty which Crossland converted to salvage a point.

Which just goes to show that the probable reason for so many see-saw games could well be that local lads just don't allow their heads to drop, however badly things might seem to be going at the time.

One side who are needing all their spirit to keep a smile on their faces are the Wigan Rovers, who have been having an occasionally torrid time in their first season in the North West Counties League. Despite a brave struggle against Clitheroe recently they went down to a goal in each half from their visitors, while the reserve side also went down fighting, 2-1 at Stalybridge Celtic Reserves.

After the games team coach, Carl Bannister, although obviously disappointed with the result, declared himself well pleased with the 100% effort his players have been putting in. And when things aren't going well 100% effort is something every player can still put in. As we have seen in all those "games of two halves", just keeping going can pay big dividends.

THE SUNDAY PEOPLE

Wigan stop slide

Wigan ended a dismal run of six consecutive defeats thanks to a rare slip by Orient 'keeper Day.

He dropped an inswinging corner from Sheldon and Houghton managed to steer the ball over the line.

Taylor was always dangerous along the Orient right flank and one of his runs had Wigan's defenders in a tangle.

He centred perfectly for Godfrey to head into the net for the equaliser.

If Orient had taken better advantage of Taylor's good work, they could easily have clinched three welcome points. Booked.

Taylor left the Wigan defence standing again, but this time Cunningham's header was brilliantly pushed over the bar by Tunks.

Four players were booked including Orient's Roffey who was lucky not to get his marching orders for deliberate handling.

Glenn and Weston were booked for Wigan and Peach collected his booking for a foul on Sheldon.

FORM REPORT. Tunks 8, Cribley 7, Glenn 7, Butler 7, Walsh 7, Methven 6, Sheldon 7, Weston 7, Bradd 7, Houghton 7, Gemmill 6. Ref. J.E. Bray (Leicester) 5.

THE SUNDAY MIRROR

A brilliant display of goalkeeping by Roy Tunks ended Wigan's depressing run of defeats.

Wigan started well and took the lead in the 13th minute when an in-swinging corner from Kevin Sheldon was dropped by Orient goalkeeper Mervyn Day and Peter Houghton stabbed the ball home.

But Latics made the mistake of giving former Spurs winger Peter Taylor room to work. He sent over a stream of centres from which Orient could have built a commanding lead. Kevin Godfrey took advantage of one to head the equaliser in the 26th minute. But Orient couldn't beat Tunks again. And Wigan almost snatched victory when a Houghton shot grazed the post.

Referee John Bray made four second half bookings — Bill Roffey and David Peach of Orient and David Glenn and Jimmy Weston of Wigan.

THE NEWS OF THE WORLD

Tunks Rescue

Wigan goalkeeper Roy Tunks was the man who stopped Orient taking the three points and in doing so he helped to end the Northerners own run of six consecutive defeats.

Manager Larry Lloyd admitted afterwards however that Wigan were slightly lucky to take a point.

They had started well enough and took the lead in the 13th minute when an in-swinging corner from Kevin Sheldon was dropped by goalkeeper Mervyn Day and Peter Houghton scored at the second attempt.

When Orient hit back Wigan made the big mistake of allowing the former Spurs winger Peter Taylor acres of room to work in and he wreaked havoc in the Wigan defence. He sent over a stream of centres which Orient should have capitalised on better.

Kevin Godfrey however took advantage of one to head firmly into the net for Orient's equaliser in the 26th minute.

What you say...

Stan Jackson, Wigan.

I didn't watch much of the game — I was too busy looking at the tickets that I'd had to pay £12 for!

Kenny Banks, Trainer.

We seem to have started to come back. Build-ups a lot better, had a few good chances early. We had some luck, but we were unlucky in the end when Peter Houghton just skimmed the post. All in all, nice to get a result. I like to think that we've turned the corner.

J. Docherty, Wigan.

I thought Roy Tunks had a great game and all the lads seemed to be working harder than in previous games. We had some good luck and some bad luck and I think the result was a fair one.

WE EXTEND a warm welcome to Millwall F.C. to Springfield Park today. Millwall were last at Springfield Park in January, 1936, when as a Third Division South club they were drawn at Wigan in the F.A. Cup. On that occasion Millwall ran out winners by 4 goals to 1. Previous to playing Millwall, Wigan had beaten Carlisle away by 6-1 and Torquay at home 3-2.

Millwall were formed in 1885 and were then known as Millwall Rovers. In 1889 they became Millwall Athletic, and in 1894 when they formed a Limited Company they became Millwall A.F.C. Limited.

In 1937 Millwall held the honour of being the first Third Division club to reach the Semi-Final of the F.A. Cup.

Their ground, known as The Den, has a capacity of 32,000 and the pitch measurements are 112 yds. x 74 yds. They are nicknamed the "Lions".

PAUL SANSOME: Joined the Club at the beginning of 1979/80 season following his release from Crystal Palace. Spent most of 1979 playing for the reserves before making his first choice debut on 28th March, 1980. His performances kept him in the team despite an unfortunate injury in the remainder of the season. SAM ALLARDYCE: Joined Bolton as an Apprentice in 1978. Signed professional contract in his League debut at Bolton in Division Two in 1980.

Junior Latics Sponsors

HELLO again! I think everyone who attended our Film Night last week enjoyed it immensely. To say that it was just a Film Night is doing the evening an injustice, because what is fast becoming a regular feature of Junior Latics nights was once again a great success. I mean of course, our Prize Bingo Session. It must be one of the noisiest bingo sessions ever held.

The guests of honour for the evening were Colin Methven and Graham Barrow, who mingled with the kids for most of the night. But the surprise of the meeting was the appearance of our Vice-President, Larry Lloyd, who typically turned up unannounced, a great surprise and what a welcome he received. Thanks Boss.

You know we really are very lucky at the Latics to have players who are willing to give up their spare time to come to our meetings. Since we started in September last year, players have attended 12 of the 15 meetings we have held. Thanks lads.

DAVID GLENN

I thought you might like to know that we gave Davy a good luck card signed by 60 or 70 boys who attend the Coca-Cola on Saturdays, and I am sure we wish him all the best at Chelsea.

CHRISTMAS DISCO

Tickets for the Disco which is being held on the 6th December at 7.30 p.m. have nearly all gone, in fact, we have about 20 left and those are for the girls. If you would like to bring along a girl friend to the disco, just give Junior Latics a ring on 44433 and let us know.

COCA-COLA

The next Coca-Cola presentations will take place at our January meeting, when we will have a star guest to present our first gold awards, as well as the other grades.

In the Commentary Box today as a guest of George Roberts is Junior Latics member Sean Fitzgerald who has a birthday tomorrow — Many Happy Returns

TODAY'S MASCOT

Our mascot today is Jason Clark. Jason is 10 years old and attends Winstanley County Primary School. His hobbies are football, boxing, and Cubs. His favourite player is David Glenn.

Have a nice day Jason.

Half Time Gossip

Latics fans visiting Orient got a shock when they saw the prices the London club demand for admission — £2.50 on the ground, £4 in the wings of the stand and £6.00 for the Centre.

Telford United ended an eight-game run without defeat last Saturday when they lost 3-1 at home to Barrow. Ex-Latics player Jeff Wright, now playing for Barrow, said, "They didn't play particularly well, but you can bet they'll be playing the game of their lives at Springfield Park next week, and nobody knows better than Wigan fans what the F.A. Cup means to non-League sides".

David Glenn had his first game in Chelsea's colours in a Reserve match last Wednesday against London neighbours Crystal Palace.

Good news and bad news for ex-Latics men now playing for Macclesfield. John Brown hopes to return today after a four week lay-off with a thigh injury (which means that another ex-Latics keeper, Peter Eales, steps down). But George Urquhart is not so lucky. He has been side-lined for a month after injuring a knee in a match against Mossley. The original diagnosis was strained ligaments. But after trying it out in a full-scale training session, George was forced to return to hospital where specialists finally found the real problem — a hair-line fracture. "The specialist couldn't understand how George had managed to stand up with that sort of injury, let alone take part in training", said manager Brian Booth.

Co-operation between the football and rugby clubs in Wigan has certainly benefited Graham Barrow. He has used the rugby clubs excellent gymnasium regularly in his fight for fitness. Well done, Central Park.

Club Secretary Colin Burke is claiming credit for bringing an end to the recent run of defeats. "I never win when I bet so I decided to put a bet on Orient beating us. It was one of those accumulator things and I rightly predicted three away results, Bury, Liverpool and Lincoln. The point last Saturday cost me £28. I don't know why I didn't think of doing it before, because it worked last season when I bet on us missing out on promotion". Money well lost, Colin.

Kevin Langley

KEVIN LANGLEY

KEVIN Langley delights in telling a story about his baptism when the priest christening him in his native St. Helens told his proud parents, "He's a fine big baby, he'll play for Wigan". It's more than likely that the curate meant Wigan Rugby, but, despite that, it was certainly a prophetic statement which came true on September 14th, 1981 when, as a seventeen year old apprentice, he ran out for his first senior game at Stockport in the Second Leg of the League Cup First Round. "That has to be the high spot of my life", says Kevin, "and I savoured every minute of it".

His career at the Latics did not start in any romantic way, no scout spotted him playing as he did for St. Helens Schoolboys or captaining Edmund Campion Secondary side for each of the five years he was there. It was only after he left school and became an apprentice painter and decorator that he decided that if he was to achieve his life-long ambition to be a pro-footballer he would have to do something about it himself. He looked up the telephone number of the Latics and rang and asked for a trial for the youth side. A trial on a Wednesday night led to a game for the "A" side on the Saturday and his place was secure.

He played for the Youth Team for six matches until Ian McNeill, receiving constant good reports about him, decided he would have to see for himself and watched him in a match against Everton "B" at Robin Park. As he walked off after another outstanding performance, his dream came true and Mr. McNeill approached him and offered him an apprenticeship. "He didn't have to ask me twice", relates the affable young man, "and I thought of all those times when my teachers shouted at me for not doing enough academic work and I had told them that I only wanted to be one thing in life and that was a footballer. "And a good footballer he looks like becoming. This season he has made 12 League appearances (4 as sub) to add to his two from last year, and he is determined to secure a regular first team place. "He's still got a lot to do", comments manager Larry Lloyd, "but if he applies himself and works hard, there's no reason why he shouldn't be a top class player. It's up to him". If that's the case, we should soon see him emerging as a real force in the team and the words of that priest eighteen years ago will be well and truly fulfilled.

Central League

Wigan Athletic 2 Derby County 1 Wednesday, 10th November, 1982

This should have been our second Central League fixture in November but injuries, added to our Exeter match and the replay of the F.A. Youth Cup forced us to postpone our game against Burnley scheduled for Tuesday, 2nd November.

On a wet and windy night, almost 200 loyal Latics fans turned up to see a fine performance from a reserve side which contained six players who have played in the first team this season. John McMahon, fighting to get back to full match fitness, stepped in to the centre of defence alongside young Stephen Walsh, and it was the old campaigner who brought a maturity to the defence which enabled the other youngsters, Graeme Hatton and Dave Martindale to make up a back four which was well in control. Indeed it was Walsh who opened the scoring after ten minutes, meeting a cross from Kevin Sheldon with a magnificent header from twelve yards out, a goal which brought praise indeed from watching manager, Larry Lloyd — "This lad reminds me of me when I was his age". Ten minutes later it was the turn of another eighteen year old, Kevin Langley, to score a spectacular goal. He struck a free kick twenty five yards outside the box over the heads of a well-placed Derby wall to send the ball screaming into the roof of the net. After that, the Latics looked as if they could score five and fine work by Kevin Sheldon, David Lowe, Des Grant and Phil Williams up front was unlucky not to be rewarded with goals.

The Derby goal came twenty minutes from the end when a momentary lack of concentration allowed Blades a free header at goal which he mis-timed and sent into a ruck of players at the far post and Garner headed home. It was unfortunate for the Latics trialist goalkeeper, Paul McCullough (ex-Brentford) that this prevented him from keeping a clean sheet because he showed great promise.

Despite this threatened come-back by Derby, the Latics got quickly back on top and Kevin Sheldon was unlucky when, after beating four players in rapid succession his shot went over the bar.

When referee Bob Jones of Liverpool brought the game to an end, twenty two sopping wet players came off to a fine ovation and certainly deserved the hot cup of tea that awaited them.

SPOTLIGHT

GOOD afternoon. The committee and staff of the Supporters' Club would like to extend a very warm welcome to the officials, players and supporters of Millwall A.F.C. to Springfield Park.

SUPPORTERS' CLUB AWAY

Twenty four ardent Latics fans made the long trek South to see the lads in action. In these days of recession to pay £10.90 coach fare, admission to the ground and expenses, there's not much change left out of a £20 note. With true blue fans like ours, we can't go wrong. No doubt they'll all have been on their travels again to Orient to complete a very expensive week. Hopefully a week profitable points wise from the team. Once again we pay tribute to our loyal fans. Keep up your tremendous support!

JUNIOR LATICS DISCO

Don't forget your Big Night on the 6th December. Tickets are limited. We are still hopeful of commencing with the Junior Disco weekly, for all you 14 to 17 year-olds. Details will be given in the near future.

ENTERTAINMENT

As it's getting very near Christmas, we would like to announce one of our functions for Christmas Eve. We have lined-up a really tremendous Comedian by the name of Trevor Wallace. Tickets for this night will be available within the next week, priced at 50 pence each.

Comments from the Chair

GOOD afternoon and welcome to all our visitors from Millwall Football Club. We have not been enjoying success recently and everybody at the club feels as badly about this as our supporters. But with the drastic depletion of our ranks due to injuries and suspensions we have certainly had our share of bad luck. I have now given Larry Lloyd carte-blanche to get replacement players on board and Jim Steel from Oldham Athletic is the first of those. I am sure you will give him a typical Wigan welcome when he runs out today.

I was bitterly disappointed to read recently the Wigan Rugby Club Director John Robinson's remarks during his clubs recent Extraordinary General Meeting when he described me in a derogatory manner as "an outsider". I take exception, Mr. Robinson, to my name being used flippantly and I feel that your remarks were totally uncalled for.

Since Bobby Charlton and I came to Wigan we have made many firm friends, including several of the Directors from the Rugby Club and we have known Alex Murphy for some time. I feel that the relationship between the Rugby and Soccer clubs in Wigan has certainly not deteriorated in any way since we arrived, and I would go so far as to say it has improved, and I intend to ensure that it continues to improve. Mr. Robinsons words, therefore, are completely out of place and I would ask him why he feels he is entitled to abuse me in his public declarations. It is the prerogative of the Latics Shareholders and only the Latics shareholders to criticise me, and I have always made myself available to shareholders and supporters to hear their views. To suggest that anybody who shares a common love of football with the people of Wigan could be "an outsider" is antiquated nonsense and I would ask Mr. Robinson to be more careful of his words in future. We all have a job to do in sport at the moment and I think he would be better advised to carry on with his own job, rather than interfering with our affairs here at Springfield Park.

And to you, the supporters of Wigan Athletic, I would merely say let us all enjoy this afternoons game.

Best wishes,

Freddie Pye, Chairman.
